

Labor Dept., Hotelmen Reach Wage Agreement

The State Labor Department and an organization of hotel men reached an agreement Thursday in a dispute over a minimum wage order increasing the pay of restaurant employees.

Both parties informed Superior Court Judge John Clark Fitz-Gerald that a stipulation had been made in the controversy. The hotelmen had been seeking a temporary injunction to restrain the state labor commissioner from enforcing the new minimum wage of $1 an hour for hotel and restaurant personnel.

Details of the stipulation weren't disclosed pending satisfaction of the agreement in the hotelmen lawsuit in the case.

However, the wage order in raising the minimum wage from 75 cents to $1 an hour and increasing the amount allowed for deduction of tips from 25 cents to 35 cents, will be in effect.

A full Superior Court trial on the matter is expected to be held soon.

Swizzle Sticks Found Poisonous

BIDDEFORD (AP)—Health inspectors here have located a lot of "swizzle" sticks reportedly containing poisonous materials.

Dr. H. P. O'Neil Jr., acting health director, said he had learned the swizzle sticks, each with the ball's head, were in use in a restaurant.

The health department said it had a warning that the swizzle sticks may contain cashew nut shells which cause a rash.

The confiscated dolls will be shipped to the State Health Department for testing, Dr. O'Neil said.

Trinity Professor Has Book Published

Transcendental Books of Hartford has announced the publication of a book by a Trinity College professor.

The book, "An Emerson Index," by Kenneth Walter Cannon, associate professor of English at Trinity and editor of the "Emerson Society Quarterly," is devoted to students and researchers in the American Renaissance on a quick to name, complete, systematic and easily indexed notebook of Ralph Waldo Emerson.

The volume is dedicated to Prof. Jesse Shepard Allen, "his ray of light and color... one of Trinity's best liked and most respected teachers."

"An Emerson Index" is the third book by Dr. Cannon published this year. Two others, "The Transcendentalists and Emerson" and "Emerson, Thoreau and Concord in Early Nineteenth Century," were issued in January.

Dr. Cannon's latest work includes many materials which have been unpublished and on which he has been at work for nearly 20 years.
